Meet Marjorie!

Sweet Annie's Basketry Marjorie Kennedy-Babbitt

www.sweetanniesbasketry.com

I started weaving in the mid '80s and opened my shop and stoneware business in 1990. My shop is located in northeastern Indiana near the junctions of State Roads 5 and 114.

Sweet Annie's offers supplies and patterns that pertain to basketry and is best known for its stoneware items. In addition to the stoneware and basketry supplies, gift items are offered such as plates that are seasonal in folk art design. All stoneware and gift items are made here with emphasis on detail to ensure customer satisfaction.

My business is comprised of designing baskets, making stoneware discs and teaching basket classes. I have taught at conventions and retreats all over the Midwest since the mid '90s. My most popular kits are those with a 2-3 hour time frame.

Thank you for inviting Sweet Annie's Basketry to the Basket Art Guild. I appreciate the opportunity!

Workshop Details:

The workshop will run from 9am till 5pm on Saturday, October 18th. Two of the classes offered are 6 hour classes and will start at 9am. The 4 hour classes will start at 10am.
