Meet Peggy Boyd...

BASKET ART GUILD

Peggy Boyd is a retired elementary teacher. Teaching is what got her started in basket weaving. The teachers would weave together once a month for relaxation. From the experience Peggy realized she wanted to weave more than once a month and so an addiction to basket weaving began. Peggy has been weaving over 39 years and loves designing as well as weaving.

In a short amount of time Peggy began teaching at her local Park and Recreation Center and then moved on to teach at conferences around Indiana and surrounding states. She has displayed her baskets in art shows in Indiana. One of her true loves is teaching 4-H students.

She wants to keep the art of basket weaving alive.

This will be Peggy's first time teaching for The Basket Art Guild. You won't want to miss out on this fun workshop!
