

2024 Christmas Weave

Our fabulous workshop chair, Bev Dondeville has a fun day planned for our guild! The Christmas Weave will be held Saturday, December 7th at the Long Creek Community Center from 10am - 3pm. We will start the day by having a gift exchange, have lunch, then weave the adorable snowmen led by Carol Osborn.

You will leave with your snowman unpainted but Carol will give you instructions on painting it if you wish to on your own.

Are you a new weaver and want to make this? Please register! We will have tools and helpers to guide you.

Plan on bringing a dessert or treat to share. The guild will be providing lunch that day.

Bev is also planning on a fun gift exchange. The limit is $20. Please bring your gift wrapped or in a gift bag. It is always fun to see what everyone brings. Participating in the gift exchange is optional of course!

The registration form is in this newsletter! Don't delay, send it in TODAY! The deadline to register is November 14th. We want to allow Carol plenty of time to prepare during this very busy time of year! The snowmen are $15/each. We will reschedule in January in case of inclement weather.

Sunday, December 8th

The day after the Christmas Weave, the guild is offering a beginner class or an open weave. The cost of the beginner class is $35. Everyone who attends the class/open weave will be asked to throw $5 in a basket for the room rent.

This is also a great opportunity to bring some unfinished projects or kits you want to weave up for the holidays. It is always more fun to weave with friends!
