Meet Jeanne...

I am a retired High School Visual Arts teacher---teaching 33 years at North-Linn Community Schools. I have my MA in Fiber Arts and Art Education. I have been a basket weaver since 1985---weaving over 4800 baskets. Designing most of my own patterns.

Several of my basket weaving skills are incorporated into the making of my hand tied Brooms. I have been tying brooms for 19 years. I have taught basket weaving and broom making in Missouri, Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Florida, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. I give classes in my home in Iowa. I am a member of many local and national Weaving Guilds.

BASKET ART GUILD

9am - 5pm

Project: S&P Napkin Roundup
Hours: 6-8 hours
Cost: $79
Weaving Level: All levels
Dimensions: 7 1/2" x 7 1/2" x 4" napkin basket
5 1/2" x 3" x 2 1/2" salt and pepper basket

Each basket begins with a woven base. Smoked, natural reed and seagrass are woven to form the walls of the baskets. The two baskets are attached together to form one complete basket. The student must really focus on shaping so that the shakers and napkins fit into the two baskets. Whether you use the basket in the kitchen, or out on the patio....you will find this is so nice to have them together in one basket.

Please note: the salt and pepper shakers are not included in your kit. You may want to bring a set from home to make sure the basket fits your set. Jeanne will have a limited amount to sell.
